West End actor Lloyd Notice re-enacts Mark's gospel in a gripping one-man drama.

The actor

Theatre, television, radio....Lloyd has done it all.

He has starred in the Lion King as Mufasa in London's West End, as Othello, Duke Frederick in As You Like It, Bottom in Midsummer Night's Dream and the Lion in Michael Morpurgo's Butterfly Lion. He has toured with the Royal Shakespeare Company and internationally in Canada and the US. Lloyd's television appearances include Casualty, The Last Detective and The Bill. And he has performed in numerous Radio 4 comedies.

Lloyd is passionate about making Jesus' story live for this generation with relevance and immediacy.

“ The moment he walked on stage, Lloyd Notice captured the imagination and took me with him on Jesus' life-changing journey. (Kezi, 17) ”

The show

This remarkable new one-man show re-enacts the gospel of Mark with humour and raw emotion.

The direct words of Mark's gospel come to life through Lloyd's formidable acting and the lighting, music and sound effects. And the drama unfolds in a powerful contemporary setting.

Inspired by Terry Waite's book Taken on Trust, the production portrays Mark's gospel through the experience of a someone held hostage for his faith, fighting for his sanity...

What do you do to prevent your mind being TAKEN?

“ Lloyd's rendering of Mark's gospel as a prisoner is a tour de force. We are taken with freshness and compelling passion, humour and intensity through Jesus' ministry. IT'S A MUST-SEE FOR EVERYONE. (Rev Patrick Whitworth) ”

Making it happen

TAKEN takes place in two acts of about 50 minutes. Suitable for any age-group and for church regulars and newcomers, you can host TAKEN for your whole church;

- * for outreach events;
- * for youth conferences;
- * at your local theatre;
- * at your community centre.
- * for an open-air summer social.

“TAKEN is utterly absorbing. It drew me in to identify with the people Jesus touched and experience their emotions. It gave me new insights and understanding. It left my mind whirling, inspiring and challenging me in my everyday life. (audience member)

TAKEN is a versatile show that has elicited standing ovations from audiences in theatres, churches, conference centres and open-air venues. Lloyd brings the whole show with him - production team, lighting, set and props.

The cost of the show is £950-£1200 per performance, depending on venue and location. Charging £7.50-£10 for a ticket works well.
